

Historic Preservation Task Force
One Parkway, 13th Floor 1515 Arch Street
Philadelphia, PA 19102

Historical Preservation Task Force Meeting
July 20, 2017
2:30-4:30pm
1515 Arch Street, 18th Floor, PCPC Hearing Room

AGENDA

1. Welcome and Introductions - Anne Fadullon and Harris Steinberg
2. Mayor's Charge to the Task Force - What is it that the task force must accomplish? - Anne Fadullon

Mayor Kenney has created a historic preservation task force to help the City reassess how Philadelphia preserves its historic resources. The task force will explore strategies and make recommendations regarding:

- Surveying historic resources
 - Incentivizing preservation
 - Regulating for preservation outcomes
 - Education
3. Task Force's Extraordinary Opportunity - Seri Worden, National Trust for Historic Preservation
 4. What Do We Want Philadelphia to Look Like in 2030 and How Can Strengthened Historic Preservation Help to Achieve This Future? – A Discussion Led by Harris Steinberg
 5. Process Moving Forward: Karen Black
 - Key Deliverables – 3 Reports
 - Timeline – 18 months
 - 10 Task Force Meetings – alternate Center City mornings and neighborhood evenings
 - Civic Engagement – First Listening Session on September 28th
 - Press
 6. Roles Moving Forward: Harris Steinberg
 - Task Force Members
 - Facilitator/Project Manager
 - National Trust
 7. Form Four Subcommittees: Please Fill out Form Before Leaving
 - Surveying historic resources
 - Incentivizing preservation
 - Regulating preservation
 - Education

Next Meeting: September 14, 2017 8:30am – 10:30am